

Year 4 - Curriculum Information

April 2018

LITERACY

Non Fiction - The Ancient Greeks

Information writing in relation the topic of The Ancient Greeks

Fiction - The Ancient Greeks

Stories from other cultures and those with historical settings. The children will explore Ancient Greek Myths. Writing in response to reading myths including diary entries, letters, postcards.

Class Reading Text - Greek Myths & Historical Information. Finish Charlotte's Web by E.B. White

Grammar and handwriting exercises

Weekly Year 4 spellings

NUMERACY

Continue to secure your knowledge of Non Negotiables (see primary pathway book)

Securing knowledge of all times tables up to 12x12 with rapid recall

Continue to revise formal written methods of calculation - addition, subtraction, multiplication, including decimal numbers & long division

Perimeter and Area

Learn about different types of triangles

Properties of shapes, polygons and symmetry

Review time on the 24hour and digital clocks

ICT

Internet Safety; awareness of ways to keep ourselves safe online.

Computer Science, programming the microbit and code club

Create animations to around the theme of a Greek Myth

Use the internet to support learning in history.

Ancient Greece

Learn about life in Ancient Greek times including Greek wars, Myths and Legends, theatre in Greek times, clothing, food, Athens and Sparta by using a range of resources to find the information.

R.E.

Religious Teachers - Jesus - How is he represented in paintings or in gospels. What does this tell us about him?

PSHE

By taking part in the onside program we will explore the topics of racism, sexism, religion, disability and bullying in sport. Play active roles as citizens through carrying out class responsibilities, debating current issues or those from Ancient Greek times or arising from literature texts.

Mrs Creed